Cultivating Potential in People

Linda Drevenstedt nurtures, explores and seeks life's "aha" moments to challenge her audiences to cultivate their potential. Linda has run a highly successful consulting firm for over 20 years. Her Steel Magnolia wit and wisdom has helped her clients move through barriers to great success.

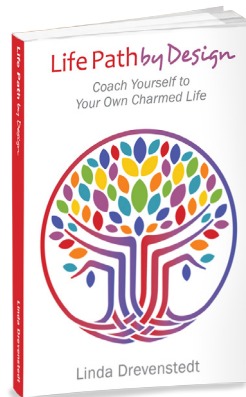

Before starting her own consulting and coaching business, she was a dental hygienist and a dental practice administrator. Her background also includes a Master's degree in Health Care Administration and a Bachelors' in Business Management. She has studied life coaching with two masters.

When Linda speaks, people have "ahas" and take home practical action steps to cultivate more potential in their life.

Linda is a 15 year professional member of the National Speakers Association, a Competent Toastmaster, serves as treasurer for the National Association of Women Business Owners' Ventura chapter and is a member of the American Association of Dental Office Managers and the Academy of Dental Management Consultants. She is certified as a Talent Smart Emotional Intelligence trainer and is an Everything DiSC[®] authorized partner.

Rave Reviews

"WOW! Fabulous. I cannot adequately express just how much I appreciate Linda's speaking efforts in words. I know how hard it was to place so much material in such a short presentation, but she managed it beautifully."

— Dr. Dale Kennedy, American Academy of Dental Practice Administration

"Energetic and full of enthusiasm ... relevant, practical content keeps the audience engaged. Linda is a true professional, very organized and very easy to work with. I definitely recommend her."

— Dr. Bruce Justman, American Association of Endodontists

"Good mix of participation and information covered all material in Handout. Energetic and fun."

— Marshall Myers, Tucker, GA

"Energetic, easy to listen to. Great responses. I've already started planning time to implement new ideas we learned."

— Amanda Conti, Kennesaw, GA
